SEPTEMBER 9 PROGRAM AT KAISER

HISTORY OF THE SAN RAMON VALLEY

Pinole and its Contra Costa County neighbors to the southeast share much history and heritage. At the September 9 Pinole Historical Society program, historian Beverly Lane, a founder of the Museum of San Ramon Valley, will present a program about the history of San Ramon, excerpted from her recently published book, San Ramon Chronicles: Stories of Bygone Days.

The program, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in conference rooms 2A and 2B of the Kaiser Permanente Medical Office Building, 1301 Pinole Valley Road, is FREE to PHS members and the public. Refreshments will be served.

Located at the southern edge of Contra Costa County, San Ramon's Native American, rancho and American past reflects that of the county and the state. Beverly will recount stories about the city which, for many years, featured a street sign that read "Population 100."

The Norris family was the first to purchase land from Californio ranchero Jose Maria Amador and settle in the San Ramon Valley. Memorable dates include 1867 when the school was built, 1891 when the Southern Pacific's San Ramon Branch Line opened, 1911 when a community hall was constructed, 1966 when the I-680 freeway was completed, and 1983, when the city incorporated.

The program will follow the development of the town from pre-historic times, with now-extinct mammal life, touch on the Ohlone and Miwok peoples, and continue through the agricultural period of the 19th and 20th centuries and on to the development of a modern town of 78,000 people.

Today San Ramon is a dynamic suburban city with the Bishop Ranch Business Park in the center and a new city hall. It's no longer a rural outskirts of the Bay Area.

Beverly Lane is an elected director of the East Bay Regional Park District. She served on the first Danville Town Council as a member and mayor.

She was the founding president of the Museum of the San Ramon Valley.

She is a local historian, author, and curator of the Museum of the San Ramon Valley. Her books include San Ramon Valley: Alamo, Danville, San Ramon, "Vintage Danville: 150 Years of Memories," and San Ramon Chronicles: Stories of Bygone Days.

Flag Holidays

Every year we see more American flags being displayed for community and special events.

On June 14, 1777, the Second Continental Congress passed the Flag Resolution which stated: "Resolved, that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Francis Hopkinson, of New Jersey, a naval flag designer and a signer of the Declaration of Independence, designed the 1777 flag.

The original flag has been modified 26 times and was unchanged with its 48 stars for 47 years, beginning with Arizona's and New Mexico's admittance to the Union on July 4, 1912. On January 3, 1959, when Alaska was admitted to the Union, the number of stars increased to 49. On August 21, 1959, when Hawaii was admitted to the Union, the flag showed 50 stars.

Flag holidays include:

- New Year's Day (Jan. 1)
- Inauguration Day (Jan. 20)
- Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday (Third Monday in January)
- Lincoln's Birthday (Feb. 12)
- Presidents Day (Third Monday in February)
